RED MOURNERS WILL NEW LINK SOON IN "BERLIN-BAGDAD" R. R.

Paraders Dispersed Here Xmas Day to Demand Release of Draft Slackers.

LINCOLN DAY IS CHOSEN

Homes of Attorney - General and Other Cabinet Members to Be Visited.

According to announcements made in "thousands" this city yesterday, extreme radicals will descend upon the White House on the morning of Lincoln's Birthday and with banners bearing inscriptions demanding the release of all imprisoned draft slackers and anti-war plotters they will picket the Executive Mansion until sundown or until they are chased away by secret service men and police.

stration have been laid by the so-called "People's Freedom Union," the members of which made a feeble attempt on Christmas morn to impress Fifth avenue with their placards demanding amnesty for those enemies of the Government which it was found necessary to lodge behind bars.

The folk in charge of this organization, which devotes much time to collect ng money from all who sympathize with its plans, expressed themselves yester-day as confident that the people whom they count upon to do the picketing will flock to the capital "from all parts of the country" and that organizations in other parts of the United States will cooperate with them.

Also May Annoy Cabinet.

It was stated that the slacker sympability of establishing pickets in front of residences of various members of Attorney-General Palmer, which was partly wrecked by a Red bomb last spring and which has been guarded night and day since. They are also considering the adoption of similar tactics to impress Anthony A. Caminetti, Commissioner-General of Immigration, another official to whom a bomb was addressed, and other Federal heads, but no definite decision has been reached on any of these details.

In the Church of the Ascension, where the amnesty paraders made their headquarters on Christmas Day, the women's committee of the American Labor party held forth yesterday and served tea to about 400 foreign born women.

Miss Helen Todd, who had charge of arrangements, explained many times the visitors that it is the purpose of the women's committee to get into touch with the foreign born and make them feel at home, "We don't aim to Ameri-canize them," she said. "We feel that there is much for Americans to learn from the foreigners. We don't want them to become 100 per cent. American Why, who is it that you find at our Carmegic Hall concerts but foreigners, and who is it that you find at the leg shows but Americans?"

the immigrants arriving here now, but those who have come in express no predilection for domestic service. Many of the women have had lucrative war work for several years and have emigrated with the idea that this country affords even better work than that they had at home. They are filled also with the spirit of the equality of man, including woman, and say they will have none of the menial occupations. Most of them bring plenty of money, too, and are prepared to look about until they find the work-or the husband-that suits them.

One woman passenger arriving first class during the week brought two Scotch girls with her who had agreed to take service in her household here. Two days after they were installed in her New York home they left her to become
